

FACILITATOR COACHING FOR EMERGING LEADERS

Coaching from a certified coach with extensive corporate executive experience

Do you already have your plan in place and are moving along “fine” but could use a boost of inspiration, motivation, help, and tools from time to time? Facilitator Business Coaching Service provides unlimited encouragement and inspiration combined with specific check-ins and resources monthly. Limited space available quarterly.

HERE'S THE LOGISTICAL PROCESS:

Complete the application and return it to me. (Please note that there are limited openings for this service annually. However, your application does indicate a commitment of interest and if accepted, you will receive an email from me within 48 hours.)

Once I receive your application and confirm availability for our time together, I will send you an email along with payment link. Please pay promptly to secure your spot. The price is $275/month and a service contract minimum of six months. You will be billed automatically after the first month.

An initial 60 minute session will be held via Skype. Following sessions will last 45 minutes. Please send your Skype connect request to me at jan.bowen7. If you don't currently have a Skype account, download a free account.

What we'll do together

In six months, your life will look different! These are the steps we'll take together:

1. Each month we'll meet virtually via Zoom or Skype for 30 minutes.

Our time will be structured to best serve your needs and your Plan. We'll discuss your progress, any challenges you're experiencing, strategies to move through habitual patterns that stall you, and approach next steps. By the conclusion of our meeting, you'll gain confidence in your direction and be eager to tackle the next step on your list.

2. You'll receive weekly emails from me, personalized to your Plan and your goals.

These emails are not standardized responses. They're written for you specifically. Some potential areas they may focus on include:

How you are applying your values and strengths to your Plan
Current vision and dreams in relation to your progress

Existing strategies and their effectiveness

3. Resources

On an ongoing basis, you'll receive resources from me to support you both professionally and personally. These may include Worksheets, ebooks, cards, videos, and various downloads and classes.

PRICE:

- $275 per month, 6 month minimum
- 12 month commitment discounted ($3000)

Alignment is pulling all the tools, solutions, and strengths together. Let's bring all those elements, with your personal strengths and values to their most powerful edge. Let's move forward and center your intentions with focus.
